

Regarding new broadcast service known as Low Power FM. Please consider that by expanding this service you may force FM translators off the air. In my area K-Love is one example. I want to say I believe this station provides position & encouraging radio for my community and would be greatly missed.